The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Aſſembled.

Die Martis, 1 Februarii, 1736.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach Your Throne with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for Your Perſon and Government, which become the moſt faithful Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

Our Duty and Gratitude to Your Majeſty have, on many Occaſions of this Nature, called upon us to lay at Your Royal Feet our thankful Acknowledgments for preſerving to Your own Subjects the Bleſſings of Peace; and the additional Motive of our unfeigned Regard to the common Intereſts of Europe, in which it is impoſſible for this Nation to be unconcerned, makes us now receive, with great Satisfaction, Your gracious Communication, That the Re-eſtabliſhment of the general Tranquillity is far advanced.

How happy and ſecure ſoever Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, may render theſe Kingdoms; it was impoſſible for us to remain wholly unaffected with the Miſeries of War, ſuffered by other Parts of Chriſtendom; and we cannot but rejoyce in the pleaſing Hopes, that all Dangers and Apprehenſions of new Troubles may be happily removed.

At the ſame Time, we eſteem it a freſh Inſtance of Your Majeſty's never-failing Care of the publick Welfare, that you put us in Mind to be attentive to the final Concluſion of this great Work. As Your Majeſty hath, on Your Part, diſtinguiſhed Your paternal Tenderneſs for Your People, in not permitting them to be haſtily involved in the Calamities of War; it would be the moſt unbecoming Return for ſo great a Benefit, to ſhew any Signs of an indolent Security: And we beſeech Your Majeſty to accept the ſtrongeſt and moſt affectionate Aſſurances, that we can never entertain the leaſt Thought of leaving our ſelves in a defenceleſs Condition; but that we will always chearfully concur in all ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be neceſſary to maintain the Honour and Safety of Your Majeſty and Your Government, and the true Intereſt of Your Kingdoms.

The gracious Approbation which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to give of the Conduct of this Parliament, affords us great Comfort and Encouragement, and Your vigilant Care to execute the Laws with Juſtice and Impartiallity, and to protect the Rights and Properties of all Your Subjects, fills our Minds with the moſt laſting Impreſſions of Thankfulneſs. Under this deep Senſe of our Obligations to Your Majeſty, we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Deteſtation of thoſe inſolent Riots and Tumults, which have of late appeared, in different Parts of the Kingdom, in Defiance of the Law, and Violation of the Publick Peace. Every Part of the Behaviour of theſe daring Offenders appears to us as weak and unreaſonable, as it is wicked; except that they have conſidered the Intereſts and Views of Your Majeſty and Your Parliament, as being ſo cloſely united, that it was impoſſible to traduce or oppoſe the one, without including the other. Our Duty, as well as our Safety, makes it incumbent upon us to give another Mark of this happy Union, by teſtifying our humble Concurrence in Your Majeſty's juſt Opinion, that ſuch audacious Practices ought to be timely ſuppreſſed: And, as we do, with the firmeſt Confidence, rely on Your Majeſty's Authority being prudently and vigorouſly exerted for this neceſſary End, ſo we aſſure Your Majeſty, with the greateſt Sincerity, that our Endeavours and Aſſiſtance ſhall never be wanting to ſupport that Authority, and to preſerve the Quiet and Security of the Nation.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs.

The Affection you ſhew to My Perſon and Government gives Me the greateſt Satisfaction.

My principal Care is to ſecure to My People the Bleſſings of Peace, and the full and undiſturbed Enjoyment of all their Civil and Religious Rights; and to preſerve the Tranquillity and good Order of the Kingdom.

The Continuance of the good Harmony between Me and My Parliament will enable Me to purſue with Effect theſe great and deſirable Ends.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for the Speech delivered, by Your Majeſty's Command, to both Houſes of Parliament.

We ſee, with great Satisfaction, the happy Proſpect of the final Concluſion of the General Pacification of Europe; and when we remember Your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours to prevent this Nation from being involved in the Calamities of a deſtructive War, and Your conſtant Application in contributing to the utmoſt of Your Power towards the great Work of reſtoring Peace, from the tender Care and Concern, which Your Majeſty has always ſhewn for the future Peace and Proſperity of Your People, as well as for the common Welfare of Mankind, we make no doubt but that Your Majeſty will continue to co operate with Your good Allies, that the Concluſion of the Peace may be attended with a general and laſting Tranquillity.

Duty and Gratitude to Your Majeſty, and a due Regard to our own Intereſts and Security, will engage us not to neglect neglect any neceſſary Precautions, which may beſt conduce to enable Your Majeſty to diſappoint and defeat all groundleſs Hopes and Expectations, which the deluded Enemies of the publick Peace may have vainly ſuggeſted and flatered themſelves with

And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will chearfully and effectually raiſe the Supplies neceſſary for the Service of the current Year, and ſupport Your Majeſty in all ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be found requiſite to preſerve the Peace and Safety of the Kingdom, the Security of our Commerce, and the Honour and Intereſts of Your Majeſty and Your Dominions.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Your faithful Commons cannot, without a juſt Indignation, obſerve the Spirit of Faction and Sedition, which has lately manifeſted it ſelf in traducing and miſrepreſenting the Legiſlature, in contemning all Authority and in open Defiance to the Laws of the Land.

It is with the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, we acknowledge Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, not only in Your ready Concurrence to all ſuch wholeſome Laws, as have been from Time to Time prepared by Your Parliament, but in your conſtant Care to enforce them by a due Execution, with the ſtricteſt Regard to the Rights and Properties of Your People, and without the leaſt Colour and Shadow of any Deſign or Attempt to ſtretch or violate the known Laws of this Realm

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Abhorrence of the many wicked and deteſtable Practices, which the Diſturbers of the Publick Repoſe have ſecretly fomented, and openly carried on in tumultouſly reſiſting and obſtructing the Execution of the Laws and violating the Peace of the Kingdom.

And we Your faithful Commons do aſſure Your Majeſty, That being fully perſuaded, that the Preſervation of the Publick Tranquillity, and our own Safety, are inſeparable from the Security of Your Government, we will ſupport Your Royal Authority in ſuppreſſing and ſubduing all ſeditious and riotous Attempts, that threaten the very Being of our happy Conſtitution, and the utter Subverſion of thoſe Liberties which have been made the ſpecious Pretence for committing theſe outrageous Diſorders

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer by Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer

I Return this Houſe my Thanks for their moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and ſhall always eſteem their Zeal and Affection for my Perſon and Government as the beſt and moſt acceptable Return for my conſtant Endeavours to render this Nation happy and flouriſhing both at home and abroad

His Majeſty relies upon the Wiſdom of his Parliament to frame ſuch Laws as ſhall be neceſſary to ſtrengthen and ſupport the Authority of his Government, in preſerving the publick Tranquillity and ſecuring the Rights and Properties of his People; and his faithful Commons may depend upon him for a juſt and due Execution of them
